Tim Millinder of Marathon Leisure presents a New Brand of Marine Coatings

Thursday 29 May, 2014

Precision is an innovative, premium range of marine coatings. A complete solution for everyone, from the sailing cruiser to the powerboat racer.

Tim Millinder, managing director of Marathon is proud to be working with Teal & Mackrill with products tried and tested by commercial vessels in the harshest of conditions, we pride our complete range of paints on being durable formulations that are easy to apply, with high performance results that last.

Designed especially for Marathon Leisure by UK paint manufacturer Teal & Mackrill. The Precision range consists of every type of coating you need to get the job done, from undercoats and primers to topcoats and varnishes. Our Premium Anti fouling formulation offers outstanding protection for boats up to 30 knots, and our Premium Antifouling is suitable for use on aluminium hulls.

Tim Millinder states; “This is a great addition to our increasing range of consumable products, from a UK family owned company, that have been manufacturing coatings for over 100 years.”

Marathon Leisure is a marine equipment wholesale distributor which was established by Tim Millinder over 23 years ago, operating from a 10,000sq ft warehouse and office facility on Britain’s south coast. The company stocks over 11,000 products from many of the biggest brands, making it one of the UK and Ireland’s leading marine distribution firms.
