Here at Wedo Towers (or on our floor of the tower at least!), the Wedo team are ready to sacrifice almost anything to find you the best furniture deals, designs and delivery.

Now, thanks to the power of charity, we are willing to sacrifice our looks and self-respect! Yes, it's Movember once again, that glorious time of year when men across the world allow the proliferation of top-lip caterpillars all in the name of a good cause! Be it baby fluff, a bit of stubble or the full blown handlebars, the brothers of Wedo are ready for the ridicule that is sure to ensue from the female contingent. But lets face it, we all know this ridicule will stem from a sense of jealousy that they can't get fully involved!

This glorious celebration of male facial growth is all to help raise awareness and support of men's health. It is all too easy to believe that afflictions like cancer will never affect us, but the reality is that it's a common occurrence these days, with an average of five men dying from a preventable illness every hour. So, it's time to stand up, be counted and do your bit. We may have the technology, we may have the medical facilities, but we still need to raise awareness, so that together we can help reduce the risk of this number climbing any higher.

The team here at Wedo, as much fun as we have with sourcing and delivering interesting and useful furniture for you, we're always on the lookout for an opportunity to do our bit for a noble and important cause. These issues affect us all, so we feel it is important to take a stand and do what we can. The Wedo girls are more than ready to keep us guys motivated and will be keeping daily tabs on us for your (and their) entertainment. So let's see how far our freshly shaved menfolk will go.....

With styles such as the 'Fu Manchu', the 'Connoisseur', the 'Trucker' and the 'Undercover Brother', there is a moustache for all men, so no excuses. It's time to get your fuzz on dudes!

If you've got a man in your life doing his part, feel free to embarrass them by sending us pictures of their progress. Moustachioed men, unite!
